presented. Report included Boat
Show Food Concession.

PRESIDENTS

REPORT

Rivergate Wheelers ATV Club will be attending the Newton Falls Poker Run, June 5th. Our trailer can hold 4 ATVs. Jill will be providing information on where to meet. MANY THANKS to all that came out and helped at the 4th Annual Boat Show Food Concession. It was another huge success – we made a nice profit and had a great time...

The Rivergate Trail from Rte 411 to Rt 37 in Theresa will be closed for the Lodge Poker Run on May 1st. This portion of the Rivergate Trail is closed permanently!!!!!!

Please visit our website for more information.

May 1st during the Lodge Poker Run the Rivergate Wheelers will be having a BBQ to benefit the Nichols Rescue Trailer. Please contact Jill or Terry for more information or to sign up to help... hope to see you there!!!!!! Motion by Glenn Van Hoesen and seconded by Kathy Watson to charge only $6 to all Senior Citizens 65 and older. Greg Hall will be providing all of the signage.
Spicing of the Chicken for the BBQ will be 6pm April 29th at Terry Fox's House, Route 180
Clayton, 686-4367 for more information.

OLD BUSINESS

Rescue Trailer Update: To date we have raised 650.00 in donations. Nichols Trailers is building a new trailer to TIERS specs and will deliver it to Plattsburgh. Glenn Van Hoesen motioned that TIERS volunteers utilize our trailer to pick up the new Rescue Trailer in Plattsburg.
Seconded by Kathy Watson.
Rivergate Wheelers now has a business account with Northern Federal Credit Union for the purpose of disbursing donations for payment on the Nichols Rescue Trailer. The new trailer to our specifications is still $1500.00
the original price of the prototype.
Great Job Greg Hall for overseeing this project!!!!!!

Clayton Chamber of Commerce Membership Picnic – May 17th. Terry will have the final details at the TIERS BBQ on May 1st. Jill will be emailing with time and place – so watch your email!!!!!! We will be providing Our BBQ, as well as hamburgers and hot dogs on a guaranteed dinner basis. Please contact Jill at jillvanhoesen@msn.com for more information.

ATV Rodeo Update – June 17th is the ATV Rodeo at the Jefferson County Fair. Clayton Fire Department has donated 15 trophies for this event. Many thanks!!!!!!

Club Shirts & Sweatshirts –

The order has been placed for hooded sweatshirts. They are $25.50(Member Responsibility).
Please contact Terry at 686-4367
if you have not already signed up.
A motion by Bob Watson and seconded by Glenn Van Hoesen to replenish our stock of club member t-shirts by purchasing 25 was passed. If you have not received your shirt please contact jillvanhoesen@msn.com.

NEW BUSINESS

Clayton Chamber of Commerce Dues: Clayton Chamber of Commerce dues were due on April 15th. The annual membership fee is $200.00. Motion by Kathy Watson and seconded by Glenn Van Hoesen after discussion on our mutually rewarding association.

Trailpass: Discussion of Trailpass as another option to obtain insurance was pursued.
Consensus is that Trailpass needs to be contacted as well as possible landowners like, Glenn Gould and Dr. Danzig for their cooperation.
Terry and Greg will begin exploration of this.

NEXT MEETING

May 17th.
After the Clayton
Chamber Picnic

Trail Maintenance – Work Detail is scheduled for April 20th to gate off the Danzig Portion of the Rivergate Trail. Wade Ingalls and Glenn Van Hoesen (The Brushhog Committee) will work on getting the brushhog ready for the season, Sunday, April 25th at Glenn Van Hoesen's house.

Jefferson County ATV Association:

Steve Tanner newly elected President of the Association spoke at length about the Danzig section of trail and the associated problems. He is committed to working with the Rivergate Wheelers to pursue this matter. The County Association is still getting organized but will begin working with NYSORVA as an active participant holding committee seats. Steve also informed us that Steve Cronk, President of the Oswego County ATV is organizing an ATV Rally on the Capitol in Albany. Please contact him at tad_tanner@hotmail.com for more information.
