REPORT

Motion by Ray Michaud seconded by Glenn Van Hoesen. Balance 6632.24 before the bills for the St Mary's dinner are paid. Estimated profit from St Mary's to be 3450.00 after expenses.

CORRESPONDENCE

The following correspondence was read to the membership:
Letter from Redwood Fire Department asking to participate in Redwood Field Days Parade.
Letter requesting donation to Thousand Island Booster Club.

No to both requests after discussion of membership present.

PRESIDENTS REPORT

St Mary's Dinner went very nicely. Special thanks were extended to both the Clayton Fire Department and LaFargeville American Legion for use of their facilities for food preparation. Also thank you to the 19 club members that turned out to assist with catering 550 hungry souls!!

Terry announced that Friday August 25th is the dedication for Sissy Danforth and requested the Jill Van Hoesen and Ray Michaud attend in representation of the Rivergate Wheelers. Both agreed to attend.

Terry also presented the check for $1000 which is the first installment from the TI Booster Club for our assistance at the Antique Boat Museum.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

St. Mary Roast Beef Dinner – Great Success – thank to the 19 strong we had helping with this event!!!! Thanks all!!

Antique Boat Show in conjunction with the TI Booster Club went very smoothly this year and we have received the first payment of $1000.00.

Car Classic Short Line committee will be headed up by Greg Hall. This event will be September 23rd on Graves Street at Station 2. Many events are planned for the Graves Street location. This event will only be one day, not the whole weekend as in year's past. More info at the September meeting.

OLD BUSINESS

Grindstone Trip – Old Homes Days was the 28th-30th of July. We had close to 20 come over this year. Besides the hail storms and bee stings – the weather was great and we had a fantastic time on the trails and on the beach. Mark your calendar for next year and this annual event.

Jefferson County ATV Association – After discussion of the membership present it was decided we would need to decline participation and sponsoring of the County Ride on August 27th. Jill will notify the County as to the above decision.

Passed.

NEW BUSINESS

Membership Dues Increase –

After discussion of membership present, Wade Ingalls motioned and Glenn Van Hoesen seconded to raise the membership dues to $15 for Single but remain at $25 for Family membership. The motioned was passed and Greg Hall will update the bylaws on the website. Jill Van Hoesen will provide a copy for the membership at the next meeting.

Lettering for Food Service

Trailer - Ray Michaud motioned and Wade Ingalls seconded that we pay $125.00 to have the sides and back of the trailer decal'd. Passed. Work detail will be on August 22nd at 6:30 at the TIERS building to get the trailer ready to be detailed.

Trail Maintenance – Mike

Hudson and Terry Fox will brush hog the section from LA to Clayton within the next two weeks. Terry will then transport the trailer and brush hog to Wade's so he can perform maintenance on both.

Cam Am Speedway and ATVs –

Wade Ingalls informed the membership he was approached by the new owner of Cam Am about the possibility of sponsoring ATV rodeos and similar events. The membership present decided to invite the new owners to our next meeting to discuss these ventures further.

Greg Hall motioned and Wade Ingalls seconded to adjourn at 8:24 p.m.

NEXT MEETING
