SEC. / TREASURERS REPORT

Motion by Wade Ingalls seconded by Greg Hall to accept as presented. Balance $382.46

CORRESPONDENCE

IRS Form 990 was received, they are verifying that we are still in existence and have not had gross receipts over 25,000. Jill will complete and submit. The email from Ray’s daughter with an update on Krissy and Stephanie was passed around for all to read. Jill informed the group she had already sent a card and will provide Ray’s address to anyone wanting to get in contact with him. Keep them and their friend in your thoughts and prayers.

PRESIDENTS REPORT

In Terry’s absence Glenn briefed discussed the upcoming Clayton Boat Show and the food concession that we will be running April 7th – 9th. He announced that Greg Hall will be chairing the committee.

OLD BUSINESS

Nascar Chicken BBQ – Thanks to the crew!!!! The net from the small 30 person BBQ was $100.55. Not bad for just a couple of hours....

Superbowl Dance at O’Briens – the response from local vendors was tremendous – we had some super door prizes. Many thanks to all that donated and to O’Briens for co-hosting and Minus Mike who provided the music. We made $255.00.

Trail Maintenance - Wade is very concerned about area around the 81 overpass. He also has some major concerns about certain four wheelers who are not abiding by safe driving standards in the Jack Street area. He also stated that the

NEW BUSINESS

Clayton Annual Boat Show - will be 7-9 April this year. We will need volunteers for the Sat and Sun shifts. 10-2 or 2-6 will be the busy times on each day please contact Terry at 686-4367 or Jill at jillvanhoesen@msn.com to volunteer a few hours for one of our major moneymakers of the year. HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE – it's always a lot of fun!!!

Jefferson County ATV Clubs, Inc – Wade (and Larry, ☺ hopefully) Ingalls have volunteered to be County Delegates from Rivergate. This will help insure smooth trail maintenance efforts with TILT and the Indian River ATV/Snowmobile Club. Jill and Greg provided Mike Bellinger four (4) copies of the Phantom Train Flyer to put on the County Boards at the dealerships.
