SEC. / TREASURERS REPORT

Motion by Wade Ingalls seconded by Greg Hall to accept as presented. Balance $1214.85 before approximately $500 in bills to include Clayton Chamber of Commerce membership again.

CORRESPONDENCE

The following correspondence was read to the membership:
Cape Vincent French Festival Advertisement Request - $40.00 to participate - will not be participating this year.
The thank you letter and numbers for the Chamber Plaque from the Clayton Chamber of Commerce for payment of our 2006 dues.

PRESIDENTS REPORT

Terry provided an update on Krissy - she is doing very well and is walking... Looks like our prayers helped - she has a lot of rehab to go through but she is doing great!

Terry read the letter received from the DOT. They will be having an informational meeting on June 1st at 4:30 and 6:30 to discuss the future of the overpasses over 81 in LaFargeville. Please come and show your support to keeping the trail in place. This meeting is on June 1st at the above times in the Town of Orleans Municipal Building. We urge one and all to please come and show your support.

Terry also announced that we should look into the possibility of incorporating Snowmobilers into the club. More information to follow as this develops.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Benefit for the Erikson's will be May 21st, 2pm at O'Briens. Please contact Terry if you would like to help with this worthwhile benefit for two local residents.

June 7th is the TI Spring Sports Banquet at the Thousand Islands High School. Chicken Only - contact Jill at jillvanhoesen@msn.com for more details. Please try to be there by 5pm we are serving at 6pm.

Polaris Grant - Terry in Greg's absence, provided information on the Polaris Grant. There are two more times this year it will be awarded July and October. Terry read the sections you can apply under. Greg will look further into it and find out what we need to do to apply and the possibility of gaining assistance from Steve Gamble.

OLD BUSINESS

Trail Maintenance - Need to do something with behind Rick Russell's, the trail to Dellingers and fence under 81. The new trail coordinator for Jefferson County is Scott Bruto. Wade will be speaking with Mark Chant of the Indian River Club to see about getting so maintenance days scheduled.

Lodge Poker Run was May 13th. The turn out was good and a great time was had by all. We had about 20 people ride the run.
