PRESIDENTS REPORT

Jill will be mailing a get well card with a Christmas Party Invite to Mark Miller. He is being operated on again. She will also prepare a sympathy card to go to Sharon Lennox (Flatrock), who lost her daughter in a LaFargeville car accident. Thanks to everyone for the help with the food service over the year, now is the time to fix up and stock the trailer. We need to set at time after Ray fixes it up next week. More details at the next meeting. Terry also requested a letter be prepared for the Clayton Chamber stating our desire to run the Food Concession for the Boat Show in 2007.

OLD BUSINESS

Car Classic – Only three people showed up and we only made $170. After discussion of membership present it was decided that it is not profitable for the Club to do food service for the Car Classic.

Can Am ATV Rodeo – went very well despite horrible weather. 15 riders in the pouring rain – ATV drags were cancelled, we were the only event that went off. Timing system worked very well. Glenn Van Hoesen motioned and Ray seconded that we purchase the serial cable so the times can be recorded on a computer. Passed.

NEW BUSINESS

Weblinking to other ATV Sites – We have been approached by two companies that want to weblink to our website. A motion by Ray and with a second by Larry Ingalls, to have Greg Hall will be the primary point of contact for this project. Passed.

All 100 pages have been updated to link to www.rivergatewheelers.com as of November 1st.
