PRESIDENTS REPORT

Terry announced that we would be doing the BBQ on March 3rd to benefit the Moving Wall. We will be spicing at the Clayton American Legion at 4pm on the 28th of Feb and meeting at 10am for the BBQ on Saturday, the 3rd. He would hope that we could have a good turnout for this worthwhile cause. Terry also mentioned that we would soon need to think about riding again and that we should speak to Mr. Champany again his year about using his section during Club events only in exchange for maintaining the trail for him. Terry will form a committee and speak to him before spring.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

None

OLD BUSINESS

Trail Maintenance – Greg Hall reported that he could not get to speak to the supervisor from Alex Bay. Other avenues will be explored to try and help the situation at Mud Lake. Wade Ingalls has had discussions with other rescue workers at the scene. More details to follow.

Insurance – Greg was unable to get to speak to Randy Harding. He will continue to follow up.

NEW BUSINESS

Clayton Boat Show – will be April 13-15th. Mark your calendars it is always a fun event and a great moneymaker for the club.

Moving Wall BBQ – will be March 3rd at 4pm at the Clayton Fire Station, Graves Street. We will start prep and cooking of the chicken at 10am. Hope to see you all there. Please RSVP to Terry at 686-4367 or Jill @ jillvanhoesen@msn.com with your availability. Thanks for your support!!!!

Cover for Grill – In conjunction with the Winter BBQ for the Moving Wall. Larry motioned and Wade seconded, that Glenn make a cover for our grill to cook in the winter. Glenn thinks it should cost less than $150.00. Passed.

Jefferson County ATV Association – Greg Hall discussed the insurance that the county is looking at. It is fairly expensive at a set fee plus $4/head for each club member. Please feel free to contact Greg for more info. Greg gave out the NYSORVA Raffle Tickets all
