PRESIDENTS REPORT

Terry informed the group that Crowleys is ready to sell the property that they own that is part of the old railroad bed. Terry will be meeting with TILT to discuss this and will provide more details as they develop. Work started on the 81 overpass on June 4th. The trail is now closed and there is no driving on Rte 411. Terry will be speaking with the DOT to find if there will be a way to still use that portion of the trail.

OLD BUSINESS

Clayton Volunteer of Year Dinner – was another successful community event netting $1214.35. Special thanks to all that came and helped make this event a success. Thanks again.

Roads in the Town of Clayton – are still closed to Poker Runs. Terry will contact the town should we want to have a club ride in Clayton. The Lodge Club has informed Terry they will no longer be having Poker Runs do to the problems from last time.

NEW BUSINESS

Brushhog – TILT agreed to sell the Rivergate Wheelers the brushhog for $1. With a motion by Glenn Van Hoesen and a second by Ray Michard. Passed – Terry will contact TILT and deliver the check.

Trail Maintenance – Dave Rush will be looking into getting a drag to help with fixing the ruts. Tim Farrell will be looking into getting a tractor to help perform some maintenance. More details to follow at the next meeting. Dave will also be going over to meet with the contractors that are performing the work on the 81 overpass. He will report on what he finds out at the next meeting.

Jefferson County ATV Association – Tim Farrell and Greg Hall will represent Rivergate Wheelers at the next meeting. They will be trying to find out what the Association is going to be doing as far as represent the clubs at the county level. Discussion also posed questions as to the County Presidency & Mark Stephenson as Mark Stephenson was in the Watertown daily times as President. Greg Hall stated there was no formal vote done at the last meeting he attended. Tim and Greg will provide a complete report at our next membership meeting.

Grindstone Island – is quickly approaching. Please send an
