SEC. / TREASURERS REPORT

Jill reported and provided hand-outs about the Boat Show revenue and the balance in the checking account. We made a little over $600 on the Boat Show and have a little over $1400 in the checking account with all bills paid. Jill asked for a motion to pay the Clayton Chamber Dues of $225.00. Passed.

PRESIDENTS REPORT

Terry reported that we mailed a sympathy card to our Honorary Members Kenny and Melanie Brabant. Terry also asked for volunteers for August 21-23 for the Firemen's Convention. We have been asked to police the streets and pick up the bottles and cans that will be left. Terry will let the Fire Department know that we will be doing it for them. We will be keeping all the proceeds.

OLD BUSINESS

Clayton Boat Show – was a great success. Not as busy as years past but with the Vendor Breakfast on Sunday we did manage to make a little over $600.00. Thanks to everyone that stopped out and helped with this great fundraiser.

NEW BUSINESS

Club Ride – Has been scheduled for May 2nd at 10am. We will be leaving from Jill and Glenn's in Theresa and riding to Philadelphia. We will return to Jill and Glenn's for a potluck dinner. Hope to see everyone there!!!! Contact Jill or Terry for more information.

Business After Hours – will be April 29th at the TI Museum. Please let Jill know by April 26th if you would like to attend. See you there!!!

Steamer – Greg Hall will be taking it apart and selling the metal for scrap. He will provide an update when it is done and how much we made on the scrap metal.

Dirt Wheels Article – we have been asked to provide information for an article for Dirt Wheels Magazine that will feature the Rivergate Wheelers. Jill will contact the writer for Dirt Wheels and provide the information needed. More as it progresses. We'll let you know when we hit the news-stands.

Classic Car Club of America – Jill will contact them to see if they are still interested in having us do a Chicken BBQ for them at the Rivershed in September. More information at our next meeting.

Glenn Gould Property – Larry Ingalls informed the group that his property is up for taxes. Terry and Larry will look further into this and speak with TILT
